GAY THANKSGIVING WEEK

University Glee Club at the Academy Night Before Thanksgiving.

Chaste Chrysanthemum.

On a mouse's gentle breast a snow white chrysanthemum lay.
Its petals blushing in the glow of the dying day.
As dreamy music stirred the languorous, perfumed air, Any fragile cups, aroma-crowned, were passed by fingers fair.

A hand snatched the flower from the little mouse's breast, While a burst of cruel laughter applauded loud the jest.
"We'll take the prize back with us to the land from which we've come, And we'll garland foot-ball victories with the chaste chrysanthemum."

So now far from the Orient, the son of heaven knows, His sacred flower is common where the fide of the wild nights of joy when a "gridiron" battle's o'er, And boys and girls all wear a 'mum if ne'er they did before.

The Thanksgiving German.
Miss Louise Herbert, who is associated with Miss Carrie Armstrong in the management of the Thanksgiving German, to be danced on the evening of November 24th in the Masonic Temple, will return this week from a visit of some length and great enjoyment to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ryan, of Norfolk.

With her return the plans that have already been formulated for the German will take active shape and to go merrily forward to perfection. The girls' minds are full of thought as to their pretty gowns, and the men they are to invite.
The flowers, the music, the debutante and Harvest Home figures to be introduced into the dancing of the German, all require thought and discussion, and afford no end of interest to the feminine element of Richmond society.

Everything so far has moved propitiously.
The lady patronesses selected from the social leaders of the city, have been most complimentary. The girls invited have been charmingly responsive, and the men they are going to take as gallant as possible. Miss Herbert and Miss Armstrong are so popular and have so many friends and admirers that to make assistance, that their efforts to make the ball a great success are being already answered in the promise for an unusual amount of pleasure. Patronesses for the evening will include: Mrs. George Ben Johnston, Mrs. Thomas Bell, Jr., Mrs.
Beverly T. Crump, Mrs. W. S. P. Mayo, Mrs. A. Churchill Young, Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mrs. Thomas Rutherford, Mrs.
Charles E. Wortham, Jr., Mrs. Eugene Massie, Mrs. Granville C. Valentine, Mrs.
Pelham Blackford, Mrs. William M.
Taliaferro, Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mrs. J.
R. V. Daniel, Mrs. Pleasant Conquest, Mrs. L. de Treville, Mrs. Charles Culp, Mrs. Thomas Armstrong and Mrs.
Ben Taliaferro.

At the Woman's Club.

On Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Dr. Eamon Williams will talk to the members of the Woman's Club on "Radium."

On Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, the celebrated Japanese scholar, Dr. Toyokichi Iyemaga, will give his lecture on "Russia and Japan," under the joint auspices of the Richmond Education Association and the Woman's Club.
Members of the club are privileged to invite one guest, a lady or a gentleman for whom and for themselves, they can get cards of admission to the lecture from the janitress at the club, on and after Monday next.

Dr. Iyemaga is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and of Oberlin. As an educator he was connected for several years with the University in Tokio. As an official he was secretary in the foreign department of the Japanese government of the Formosan government. He has traveled through Persia, Asia, Turkey, Egypt, India and China.
These travels have accorded to him unusual opportunities of experience and observation in the Orient, so as to give him that breadth of view and depth of thought needed for the mastery of the whole subject.

His contribution to the Forum, Review of Reviews, and other high class American magazines have endowed him, as an author, with a reputation for remarkable vigor and lucidity in style.
His presence here will offer an appreciated opportunity for information on the Eastern question, which is now absorbing all minds.
Invitations have been received in Richmond from Judge Joseph Brown Prince for the marriage of his sister, Besse, to Mr. John Seyl, of Norfolk, the ceremony to be performed Wednesday evening, November 23d, at 6:30 o'clock, in the Epis-tolic Church, at Courtland, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Seyl will be at home after December 10th, in "The Rochester," Norfolk. Miss Prince is widely known as a young Virginia girl of lovely personality. Mr. Seyl is a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and a member of the enterprising law firm of Seibell and Cabell, in Norfolk.

Davidson-Koerner.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the autumn will be celebrated Wednesday, November 16th, at 6:30 a. m., when Miss Hattie May Koerner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Koerner, of No.
1204 Floyd Avenue, is given in marriage to Mr. Edwin Davidson, the son of Mrs.
Elizabeth Bruce Davidson, of Bedford City, and the commercial agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga.

The Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, of the Church of the Covenant, will perform the ceremony, and Mr. John Yarbrough will direct the music.

The bride will be attended by her matron of honor, Mrs. Thomas West, of Mexico City, and by her bridesmaids, Miss Besse Martin, of Farmville; Miss Maudie Weisger, and Miss Mary Coulter Koerner. Charming little ribbon girls will be Miss Elizabeth McGill, of Tennessee, and Miss Laura Richardson, of this city.

Mr. Henry L. King will be best man to the groom, Mr. Gordon Strachan, Mr. E.
Scott Martin, of Farmville, and Dr.
Edgar W. McGrudder, of this city, will be the groomsmen. Among the guests from a distance will be Mrs. Elizabeth Bruce and Mr. J. T. Davidson, of Bedford City; Mr. Cornelius Thomas, of Port Norfolk; Mr. Willis Martin, of Waverly; Mrs. Leon Ware, of Staunton, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West, of Mexico City.

Miss Koerner is connected with many influential Virginia families, being descended from the Madisons, Lewises, Johnsons and other equally notable and well known names. Added to her many charms and accomplishments is the fact that she is one of the most graceful and famous equestrians in the State, and that she has frequently been very successful in the ring in winning prizes. Her father, Mr. George W. Koerner, is State Commissioner of Agriculture, and has represented his section in the Virginia House of Delegates several times. The House of Delegates looked forward to both in Richmond and Virginia with much interest.

University Glee Club.

The Thanksgiving festivities will open brilliantly in Richmond this year by the appearance at the Academy of Music on the evening of Wednesday, November 23d, of the State University Glee and Mandolin Club, in a programme of exceptional merit and beauty.

The entertainment is to be given for the benefit of the Home for Needy Confederate Women, and it is due largely to the efforts of Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague, the president of the board of Home, that the engagement has been made with the Glee and Mandolin Club.
The presence of many visitors in Richmond on the eve of Thanksgiving will insure for the occasion a house crowded from orchestra to top gallery.

The debutant, who will the next day witness the annual foot-ball game to be played by the University of Virginia and the University of North Carolina teams, the society girls and their guests, many of whom will be the friends of the Glee and Mandolin Clubs, will make up an inspiring element in the audience of the evening.

The Academy will be decorated with American beauty roses and the colors of blue and white. The four lower boxes will be reserved for the opposing football teams, and no effort will be spared to render the event, not only a memorable success, but a memorable pleasure.
The members of the Alumni Association will be specially interested patrons of the evening. The list of patronesses, to be taken largely from the wives of the alumni and the social leaders of the city, is necessarily as yet altogether incomplete. The letter list will be published later. Those who have already been heard from include Mrs. W. Gordon McCabe, Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Mrs. Henry L. Cabell, Mrs. William A. Anderson, Mrs. John K.
Branch, Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. Schuyler Hamilton, Mrs. Isaac Davenport, Mrs.
Levin Joyner, Mrs. Dabney Crenshaw, Mrs. Emmanuel Riah, Mrs. A. J. Montague, Mrs. J. Stewart Bryan, Mrs. Eppa Hunt, Mrs. Edward N. Culchese, Mrs.
Declar Axell, Mrs. James Keith, Mrs.
William L. Royall, Mrs. Charles Evelyn Smith, Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mrs. A. von N. Rosenegk, Mrs. Beverly Crump, Mrs.
Lawrence Ingram, Mrs. John Dow, Mrs.
Lawson Young, Mrs. Armstrong Wellford and Mrs. Clifton, of Manchester.

Pretty Home Wedding.

A very pretty home wedding took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mr. W. B. Daniel, Home Place, Richmond, Va., the bride being Miss Mary Louisa Bullock, who became the bride of Mr. Stonewall J. Wingfield, the Rev. I. M. Mercer, D. D., pas-

We Confess

In all our sixty years of Piano making and selling, we have never had a sale that so thoroughly demonstrated our desire to sell taken-tor of the West View Baptist Church, performing the ceremony.

The bride entered the parlor, which was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and growing plants, with her sister and maid of honor, Miss Katherine Bullock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Annie Coffee. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. John W. Wingfield.
The bride looked very beautiful, dressed

PROMINENT COUPLE TO WED IN NORFOLK

The wedding of Major S. Hath Tyler and Miss Nellie Serpell will be quietly celebrated Wednesday, November 16th, in the home of the bride, on Freemason Street, Norfolk, Va.

Immediately afterward Mr. and Mrs.
Tyler will leave for an extended bridal tour. No cards will be issued, and the ceremony will be witnessed only by the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Miss Serpell is the daughter of Mr. G.
M. Serpell, the general manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, and is a young lady of the most engaging appearance and gracious manners. Major Tyler is a son of former Governor J. D. Tyler, of Virginia, and a member of the law firm of Sale, Mann and Tyler, in Norfolk.

During the four years of his father's administration as Governor he was closely and most pleasantly associated with the social and club life of Richmond, and has a host of friends here, who are greatly interested in his approaching nuptials.

Birthday Party.

A surprise birthday party was tendered Mrs. Emma P. Smith at her residence, No. 54 West Marshall Street, Monday evening last. The evening was very pleasantly spent in refreshments and songs, and at a late hour refreshments were served. The following were present:

Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Mrs. Jennie Walters, Mrs. Dolly Bibbs, Miss May Walters, Miss Marie Anderson, Miss Iva Kilby, Miss Maudie Hague, Miss Leode Smith, Messrs. J. P. Stinson, T. R. Ridout, Charles Embury, A. R. Roach, A. J.
Snead, Mr. Bibbs and Steven L. Cole.

Ladies' Morning Musicals.

On next Wednesday, November 16th, at 4 P. M., the Ladies' Morning Musicals will hold its second meeting of the session.
Mrs. M. B. Thomas is chairman of the programme committee for this meeting, and the members are assured of an interesting and interesting illustration of the famous Bohemian composer, Pau Antonin Dvorak.

This club is working for the advancement of good music in this city. Last year the study covered the German classical composers, from Johann Sebastian Bach to Richard Wagner.

A great treat was felt for more knowledge along that line among the members of the club. This year the study will embrace the Savoyard and Italian composers to the present time.

The club meets alternate Wednesdays promptly at 4 P. M. in the hall of Fer-guson's music store.

Randolph-Cartmell.

A wedding of interest to Richmond and Frederick county society was that of Miss Annie Lyle Cartmell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Cartmell, and Mr. D. Coupland Randolph, of this city, which took place at "Ingleside Cottage," the home of the bride's parents, near Winchester, Va., on November 9th.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white crepe de chine over tulle, and carried Bride roses. She entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away.

Mrs. Laurence L. Davis, of Roanoke, was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, among whom were some of the prettiest girls in Winchester, were Miss Jewell Baker, of Newport News; Miss Augusta Conrad, Miss Elizabeth Faulkner Love and Miss Katherine Boyd, all of Winchester. Mr. Beverly B. Dandolph, of Richmond, was the best man, and the following Richmond men were among the number of the groomsmen: Messrs. E. C. Wright, W. L. Wright, A. A.

Lewin and W. G. Turpin.

After a Northern tour Mr. and Mrs.
Randolph will make their home in Richmond, Mr. Randolph being associated with the Southern Manufacturing Company.

Boggs-Washington.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday, November 16th, at St. Peter's Church, in King George county, when Miss Besse Martin Washington, the youngest daughter of Colonel Robert J.
Washington, of Westmoreland county, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Withers Boggs.

Miss Fannie Washington, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mr.
Wirt Washington, the best man. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr.
Lloyd Washington.

After the ceremony an elegant reception was held at "Camellion," the home of the bride's father.

Shoop-Engleman.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Engleman, of Kerr's Creek, Va., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Grace, to Mr. Charles O. Shoop, of Galesburg, Ill.

The wedding will take place Tuesday evening, November 23d, at 7 o'clock, in "Glen Echo," the home of the bride's parents.

The Lynchburg Daughters.

The Blue Ridge Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, had their annual meeting on Thursday afternoon at the handsome residence of Mrs. R. D.
Apperson, in Rivermont. The meeting was both a social and business one. Miss Ella Hiney Miller, who represented the chapter in the recent conference held in Fredericksburg, read a charming report, in which the business of the conference was fully given, and also a delightful account of the social feature, along with a vivid description of all points of interest in and around historic old Fredericksburg. Mrs. B. C. Hammer, who has been the efficient state secretary and is now the chapter chairman, on programme, has arranged an attractive and instructive programme for the ensuing winter. The following officers were elected: Mrs. J. D. Horsley, regent; Mrs. R.
O. Horton, vice-regent; Mrs. Don P.
Halsey, secretary; Mrs. D. C. Frost, treasurer; Mrs. John H. Christian, historian. Delicious refreshments were graciously served by Master Richard Appersen, assisted by Misses Apperson and McDaniel.

The next monthly meeting will be held the second Thursday in December at the residence of Mrs. O. L. McGraw.

Last Week's Weddings.

Among the interesting weddings of the past week was that of Miss Charlotte Mary Yonge, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Samuel H. Yonge, to Mr. Horace Stringfellow, the son of Major Charles

The Modish Millinery Ideas.

It might be called an "opening"—this splendid new showing of Millinery in every phase—such a wide variety of shapes, sizes and trimming effects. We invite critical inspection of our display as a reflection of the well settled—the fixed, fall and winter modes.

The assortments offer a variety of de- signs which for taste and exclusiveness are not equalled outside of New York. In- cluded are the charming Charlotte Corday effects, Continental Turbans, Toques and Picture Hats developed in beautiful shades of bronze and terra cotta.

Smartly Tailored Hats of velvet, chenille and beaver cloth—especially featured for wear with tailor-made suits, form a group by themselves. Prices are a satisfactory feature of this showing, as in every instance they ex- press unwavering determination to place high grade Millinery on sale at very modest figures.

Women's Tourist Coats,

ADMITTEDLY THE BEST VALUES.

When, through its customers, the word goes abroad that one store has greater variety of correct styles and manifestly higher average quality at every price, that word arouses interest and brings new customers. Evidently such word has been spoken of this store many hundred times this season
